Introduction

Golfstakes patent pending technology is a unique scoring and tracking system for golfers. Golfstakes can be used to score golf rounds, track statistics such as fairways hit, greens hit in regulation, etc, and multiple golf games.

The scoring feature in Golfstakes can be used for personal games, as well as for leagues and golf tournaments. Players or clubs can setup a golf outing at the Golfstakes website ahead of time, and then players can choose the previously created the round on a cell phone for scoring once they arrive at the course.

Players who like to throw balls in the air to determine groups can create group on the fly using a cell phone at the course.

There is no limit to the amount of players in a group, groups in a round, or golf game configurations that can be added to a round.

Create a round at www.golfstakes.com

A round may be created ahead of time by using the Golfstakes.com website and then accessed at the course by using a web enabled cell phone for scoring. This eliminates the need to setup the round when you arrive to the course. If you are unsure of who you will play with at the course, you can also setup the round on a mobile phone. Please refer to the Mobile Instructions section.

1. Login to www.golfstakes.com
2. Click the “My Game” tab and “Play a New Round” link to begin

Course Information Tab

1. Round Name: Enter an optional name for the round. Helpful when browsing rounds list.
2. Course: Use the drop down to select a course from your course favorites
Search: Use search to find a course that is not in your course favorites
3. Tees: Use the drop down to select the tees that you would like to play
4. Date: Enter a date for the round. Defaults to today
5. Holes: Choose how many holes to play: All 18, Front 9, Back Nine
6. Save: Saves the course information that was chosen

Setup a Round of Golf

- Active: Uncheck option to delete round from your rounds list
- Skip Summary Screens: Check option to disable game summary screens in between holes
- Enter Stats for Round: Check option to enter stats for the entire groups such as: Fairways hit, greens in regulation, Putts, etc.
- Tournament Round: Check button to make this round a tournament
 - Clicking the “Tournament Round” button assigns a tournament ID to the round so players can join the round by entering a tournament ID.
 - It also changes the button to a “View Live Leader Board” button. When “View Live Leader Board” is clicked it will display a live leader board that will update every 3 minutes with live results as players post scores on a cell phone while playing or scores that posted via the Golfstakes.com website

Adding Players to a Group

Players can be added to a group in three ways

1. Add Players to a Group: Enter a Golfstakes.com User ID in any of the 4 fields. 4 User ID's can be entered at once.
 2. Friends List: Use the check box next to one of your friends to add them to the group
 3. Add a One Time Golfer: This will add a "One Time" golfer to the group and allow the name to be changed. This should be used for players that do not have a Golfstakes.com user id.
 - a. Note: Golf rounds and scoring stats will not be stored for players that do not have a Golfstakes.com user id. Players with a Golfstakes.com user id will have their rounds and scoring stats stored even if they do not score the round.
- Playing Order: Determines the order that player's scores will be entered in
 - Tee: will default to the tee that was chosen when the course was chosen. Use the drop down box to change the tee for any player
 - Index: The players handicap index. This will be pulled automatically from the user profile it entered. It can also be entered manually. If entered, it will automatically calculate the player's handicap for the tees that were chosen.
 - Handicap: The player's handicap. Can be entered manually or automatically calculated from the player's index.
 - Cart: This is used to pair partners together for side games, leagues, or tournaments. Players assigned to the same cart number can be auto added as partners.
 - Remove: Click this box and the "Save Changes" button to remove a player from the group
 - Save Changes: Saves all changes to the group.

Adding Side Games to a Round

Optional side games can be added to any round.

Special notes about side games:

- Games can be used to score league play and/or tournaments.
- There is no limit to the number of games that can be added to a round, or the number of player/ game combinations.
- Games can be created across multiple groups and results can be viewed live on the course if scoring is done on a web enabled cell phone.
- Players, Teams, or Groups can also be "Auto" added to side games if the "Auto Add" feature was used when the game was created. This is helpful if players or groups will be added on the fly after the games have already been setup.

To add side games, click on the "Side Games" button after the round has been saved. This will display the "Side Game Wizard"

Round Landing Screen

Verify that the players and course are correct. If any corrections need to be made, choose the appropriate button to make corrections.

Choose the “Enter Scores” button to begin entering scores for the round.

Starting Hole

Verify that you are starting on the correct hole by choosing “Yes” and selecting “Next”

If this is not the correct hole, choose “No” and select the correct hole from the drop down and select “Next”

Side Game Summary

On the first hole, Golfstakes will show a side game summary so players can see which players stroke in each game. Players listed in “Red” will receive a stroke on this hole for a particular side game. If there name is “Red” and followed by an “*”, they will receive 2 strokes on this hole.

Notice there are no strokes in the Match Play game because the handicapping was set to “Spin Off”.

In the Skins game, 3 players will stroke on hole number 1 because the handicapping was set to “Net”

Select “Next” to continue

Scoring a Hole

Use the drop down score selector to enter a score for each player in the group. When all scores have been entered, Select "Next" to continue

Repeat this process until the round is complete.
